The approach road to the John Radcliffe is on Headley Way. From the site of the old Radcliffe infirmary take the Woodstock Road north for 1 mile, then right (Moreton Road) following the “H” and “A&E” and John Radcliffe signs, along Marston Ferry Road to Headley Way.

Car parking
There are four main parking areas for patients and visitors:
Car Park 1:
For Trauma Unit, Cardiac Services and Main Hospital
Car Parks 2 & 2A:
For Main Hospital and Women's Centre
Car Park 3:
For West Wing and Children's Hospital
Car Park 4:
For parents and carers of children with appointments at the Children’s Hospital. Parking is “Pay on Foot” - pay at machine as you return to your car, not at the barriers. Change given.
There are places to pick up and set down patients at the main entrances.
Parking for “blue badge holders” is available in Car Parks 1, 2, 3, and 4 (charges apply) and opposite the Level 2 entrance to the Main Hospital, West Wing/Children’s Hospital entrances and Maternity entrance to Women’s Centre (free of charge). See hospital plan.

Oxford Radcliffe Hospitals NHS Trust

How to find us

By train
The John Radcliffe is about 3 miles from Oxford railway station, with its frequent trains from London (Paddington) and many other parts of the UK. Allow 15 to 20 minutes by taxi from the station forecourt and 25 to 30 minutes by bus number 13 and 14 direct to the hospital.

By coach
The “Oxford Express” (X90) and the Oxford Tube operate frequently 24 hours a day to and from central London, stopping in Headington Centre, 10 minutes walk.

By air
Oxford is well placed for airports in London and Birmingham. London Heathrow is about 70 minutes by bus – Airline Express X70. There is also an Airline Express X300 to London Gatwick. These services stop in Headington Centre.
